

Please review this list of ten criteria you can use to see if we are a good fit for you based on what you are looking for from your next career:

- Independence and freedom to manage your own time and activities
- You are looking for a real six-figure pay plan that has a real potential for $100,000 plus
- Feel that you have to be part of something bigger than just “selling stuff” – you need to be part of a company with a vision
- You enjoy working with people and contributing to their success
- Have a track record of personal growth and development
- If you have been in the car business and love it but hate the hours and the stress
- Can’t stand waiting for people to come to you and want to go and get to them
- Want to be part of a company with a proven track record and incredible reputation
- Like a small company atmosphere as long as it has a big vision and huge impact
- Great training and support and the tools to succeed

If you don't fit all ten of the following criteria then you are probably not a good fit for us.

- Automotive sales and or management background – minimum 2 years retail sales
- Strong sales skills – investigating, presenting benefits, overcoming objections, closing the sale
- High level of independence and self-motivation
- Creativity and adaptability in dealing with different people
- Desire to earn a minimum of $100,000 annually and ability to work a pay plan to its maximum potential
- Speaking and presenting skills to an audience of one or a small group
- Service orientation and desire to see others succeed
- Time management and organizational skills to manage your daily activities
- A high goal orientation that compels you to achieve success no matter what
- A desire for time freedom and flexibility and an income that provides that kind of freedom